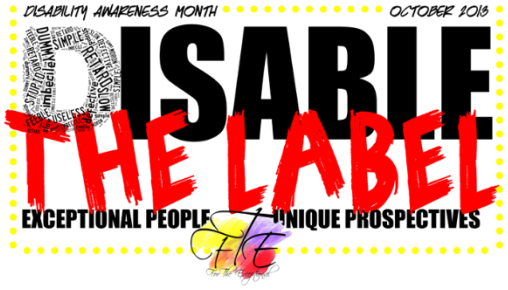
People with disabilities should not be labeled or defined by their unique prospective. Defining anyone by their disability can be hurtful and cruel.

_____

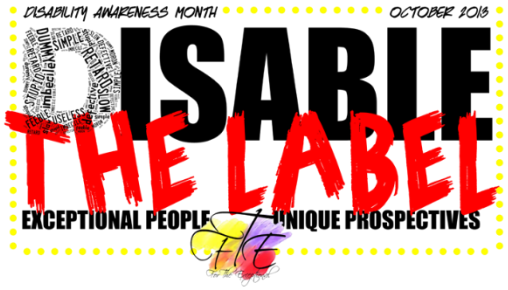
is helping to Disable The Label, through acknowledging and accepting differences!



People with disabilities should not be labeled or defined by their unique prospective. Defining anyone by their disability can be hurtful and cruel.

_____

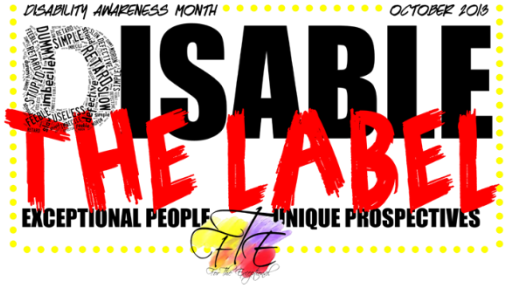
is helping to Disable The Label, through acknowledging and accepting differences!



People with disabilities should not be labeled or defined by their unique prospective. Defining anyone by their disability can be hurtful and cruel.

_____

is helping to Disable The Label, through acknowledging and accepting differences!



People with disabilities should not be labeled or defined by their unique prospective. Defining anyone by their disability can be hurtful and cruel.

.

_____

is helping to Disable The Label, through acknowledging and accepting differences!